DETAILS

Mei-Fen Juan is wanted for allegedly kidnapping her daughter, Emily, from Flushing, Queens, New York. On September 10, 2004, the father of Emily went to the apartment where she and her mother were living for his weekly visitation. Neither Emily nor Mei-Fen were present. A summons was issued by the New York Family Court requiring Mei-Fen to appear in court on September 14, 2004. When she did not appear, the Court awarded custody of Emily to her father. Law enforcement investigation revealed that Mei-Fen Juan and her daughter, Emily, left the United States on a flight bound for Taiwan on September 6, 2004. On February 17, 2005, a federal arrest warrant charging Mei-Fen Juan with international parental kidnapping was issued by the United States District Court, Eastern District of New York, Brooklyn, New York.
